LAWS OF BREEDING
In an address delivered some time since by Prof James Law before the Massachusetts State Board of Agriculture the principles of breeding were set forth as follows:
1. A perfect development and sound vigorous health, constitutionally, especially in the generative organs, are conditions of fertility.
2. In the maintenance and improvement of a breed, the truth that like produces like, that the productive germ will stamp upon the animal developed from it the characters of the parent organism is the backbone of success.
3. We can in a great degree at will produce variations and improvements in breeds by abundant feeding, a mild and salubrious climate, rich and healthy soil, moderate use, education, stimulation or selection of desirable qualities, by disuse or rejection of undesirable characters or properties, by soliciting the weight of many animals to mix only with the stamp of sires, by crossing less improved breeds, and by crossing animals faulty or deficient in some particular point with others in which this point is developed in excess.

THE OREGON BRIBERY

Senators Morton and Mitchell deserve great credit for the ability with which they have pushed the exposure of the Oregon rottenness until they have reached its fountain head in Mr Tilden's New York bank The crafty manner in which it was sought to conceal the agency of this transfer of funds, is sufficient indication of the corrupt motive and it is really remarkable that the studied precautions failed to prevent discovery Just note the whole manner in which it was sought to cover the tracks of $8,000 of Tilden's money sent from New York to Oregon O. C. Dimon, a broker, sent the draft for a "customer" which finally proved to be another firm of brokers, Martin & Runyon The latter firm also had acted for a "customer" and so cautiously that no charge was made against him on the books but the amount was advanced on a private understanding and charged to the account of the firm without any evidence of consideration therefor The witness, Runyon was very unwilling to disclose the name of his customer, but the name of Col Pelton, Tilden's nephew and secretary, having been connected with the case the witness took great pains under the questioning of Senator Kernan, to exculpate Mr Pelton from complicity in the transaction He said he did not know Mr Pelton that the latter was not the customer and he had no dealings with Pelton in the matter At this testimony the Democratic organs became very chipper again and declaimed against the base attempts to inculpate Mr Tilden's representative But under pressure of being declared in contempt Mr Runyon concluded to name his customer who proved to be Mr Conrad N Jordan, cashier of the Third National Bank, of New York city Here the trail turned sharply toward Tilden again that Reformer being known as a stock holder and director of Jordan's bank, while he and Jordan have been intimately connected in land speculations Jordan was summoned and he too, had advanced the $8,000 for a "customer," without collaterals or consideration The bait had become too warm for concealment and just here it popped out that Col Pelton was after all the party at whose request Jordan had ordered the draft of Martin & Runyon Mr Jordan admitted that it was not a bank transaction and was not entered on the books, that Pelton had no account at the bank and is not a man of wealth, yet Jordan had become responsible for the $8 000 draft without security and testified that Mr Tilden the uncle of Pelton is a director in the bank and owner of $65 000 worth of stock It is interesting to note the sinuous course adopted in sending $8 000 to Oregon and it will be hard to make ordinary people believe that such peculiar efforts at concealment were adopted in sending money intended for any honest purpose Mr Tilden or his personal agents wished to send $8 000 to certain parties in Oregon, and the following is the roundabout method adopted Pelton goes to the cashier of the Third National Bank and gets him to advance the money but instead of letting him give a draft direct in favor of the Oregon parties he goes to a brokers' firm, that of Martin & Runyon, and gets them to give their check for the amount without any record of the transaction and they in turn take their check to another broker Dimon and in exchange for it get him to give a credit of $8 000 to Ladd & Bush in Oregon Pains were thus taken to cover the trail at every point but the searching investigation of the committee has proved too much for the craft of the Liberty street conspirators, and the corruption is traced to that central reservoir that has become popularly designated as "Tilden's Barrel" The exposure is one of the most disgraceful that Mr Tilden has been called to face, and the party leaders have been goaded by it into a frenzy of accusation against the Republicans with which they hope to divert public attention from the Oregon scandal But it will not succeed for the people have watched this Oregon business and are disgusted at the evidence that a candidate for the Presidency has been using large sums of money directly for the purpose of purchasing a fraudulent Electoral vote The whole miserable business is entirely characteristic of the methods of Samuel J Tilden

SOUND WORDS.

Representative Hery W Blair, of New Hampshire is not at all in doubt as to where he stands on the Presidential question In his speech accepting a renomination on Tuesday he said "I firmly believe that just and the unimpeached and unimpeachable forms of law now demonstrate the election of Mr Hayes, and I see nothing but successful treason which is revolution that can prevent his triumphant accession to the Presidency of the United States To elect a President and then to compromise away his inauguration under threats of revolution or of violence, or for plunder or from any cause whatever is the destruction of constitutional government It is the establishment of a precedent which shall abolish elections, and cause, in all future time, fraud and violence before coupled with noise and threatening after the decision of the ballot box will have only to follow that precedent in order to reverse the decrees of the people at the polls whenever it is pleasant to threaten rebellion than to acquiesce in the result of the laws of the land"

For a "conservative" party the Democrats of the House seem to be going into "bastile" business on a large scale They have already "incarcerated" a New Orleans telegraph manager for inability to surrender despatches removed from his custody by his superiors, are preparing a "dungeon" for the President of the West Union Co , declare the intention of imprisoning the whole Executive Committee of that corporation, have determined to arrest and imprison the State Returning Board of Louisiana, and are threatening to lay violent hands upon and lock up a member of the Cabinet And there is no civil war to justify the "tinkling of that little bell" How the old Bourbons who were constantly fired up by denunciations of the "tyranny, the outrage on liberty," etc., whenever a traitor was sent for safe keeping to Fort Lafayette during the rebellion, must rub their eyes as they read of the performances of their party at Washington

Concerning weak-kneed Republicans, the Boston Traveller remarks "Peace-at-any price men are the natural allies of the war at any cost men,—and between them they do most of the misgovernment of the world"

NO QUIBBLES WILL AVAIL.

[From the N Y Tribune.]

It seem quite clear then that there is no power in Congress to revise the action of the legally constituted State authorities—in other words, to go behind the action of the Returning Boards. The friends of Gov. Tilden have then but one recourse, and that a lame one upon their own confession—to fall back on the Oregon case. Whenever that comes up, the President of the Senate, finding by Gov. Grover's certificate that two Republicans were elected, must take their certificate—they being a majority and a quorum—and open and count their votes As to the vacancy which Mr. Cronin imagines be filled and overflowed, there can be no question of the right of the two regularly elected and certificated electors to fill it. The votes of these three elector must be accepted and counted, and that will end the brief Oregon sensation A decent regard for the plain intent and meaning of the Constitution will lead out of all the apparent difficulties of the situation. There is no technicality or quibble or dodge upon which Mr Tilden's friends can bang a hope There is nothing for them but to threaten violence, and that will hardly help them

THE SENATORIAL ELECTION

In accordance with law the election of United States Senator to fill the unexpired term for which Hon Lot M Morrill was elected, and for the new term of six years, from the 4th of March next, will be held in the Legislature to-day At the hour appointed the vote will be taken in each branch separately, each member arising in his seat when his name is called and declaring by name his choice for Senator On Wednesday the two houses will meet in joint convention, when the records in the journals of the two houses of the action of the day before will be read, and the President of the Senate will declare the election of the successful candidate Hon James G Blaine having been unanimously nominated by the Republicans who compose an overwhelming majority of the Legislature, the result of the election is involved in no doubt The few Democrats in the Legislature will cast complimentary votes for Hon W P Haines

THE ONLY AUTHORITY

[From the New York Times]

Amid all the Washington gossip about a plan for counting the Electoral vote, there appears to be but two elements of absolute certainty The essential details of any proposal are still uncertain and no plan whatever has been as yet submitted which is likely to be accepted by a majority of the Joint Committee There ought to be amusement as well as instruction for posterity in the childish device of deciding by lottery the composition of a national Returning Board and there certainly are grave dangers for the present generation in any proposal which aims at dragging the members of the Supreme Court into the quagmire of partisan politics The Electoral votes will be counted and declared by the only authority who has law and precedent on his side viz the President of the Senate and the sooner the country reconciles itself to that solution of existing difficulties the better It is tolerably clear that the Joint Committee will be unable to offer any rational mode of solution at all

Readers will do well to keep a sharp watch on Proctor Knott's committee and the reports that he will send out The Democrats have desperately resolved on inventing some sensation to offset the Oregon exposure Hence the revival of charges of a "Republican conspiracy," and "Secretary Chandler's despatches" It is well known that Mr Chandler is willing that all his despatches should be made public and his refusal to answer was made to questions concerning his intercourse as a Cabinet officer The "star chamber" system has again been adopted by Knott, so that the proceedings cannot be reported except by such false despatches as he can procure to be sent out by Democratic "specials" Knott fully demonstrated his scoundrelism in connection with despatches at the last session Keep your eye on him

The Democrats chuckled a great deal over the evidence that the $8 000 draft was returned from Oregon, and claimed this as proof that it was not used But the Republicans who have overhauled the matter say that the money was first sent by express, but had failed to arrive on the day for counting the Electoral votes The parties would not act without the money so the telegraph was resorted to and the draft for $8 000 sent to Ladd & Bush This explains the evidence that Bush came up the Capitol steps in a great hurry, between a walk and a run " and at once had a conference with the Democratic chairman The Cronin programme then moved on and when the money arrived by express a few days later the draft was returned by telegraph

An Augusta correspondent of the Portland Argus—presumably the editor of that paper who is acting as "Democratic leader" of the small collection of that party in the Legislature—sent it a statement last week that the Boston Herald had obtained important additional evidence against Mr Blaine and had printed 40 000 copies to be distributed in this State prior to the Senatorial election to-day The Herald published an editorial denial of the story as "a ridiculous falsehood," and a despatch to that effect was sent to the Associated Press The Argus, however, suppressed the despatch contradicting its own lie, and Mr Adams continues to be a very appropriate representative of his party

A Washington despatch says "Whatever the explanation may be, the phenomenon is indisputable, Tilden is no longer the power he was in his party a few weeks ago He is no more the arbitrary political chieftain, surrounded with the glamor of imagined greatness and power, but only the rich old lawyer of Gramercy Park with a claim to the Presidency, acquired in large part, it is believed, by use of money, and asserted with many pettifogging devices,"

The Boston Herald spitefully remarks? "For once the Democrats of Maine acknowledge they can't succeed. They have no hope of beating Blaine But we haven't heard from the Bangor Commercial. That paper may still have expectations "

A Democratic Organ Advising Murder.

The Latest Particulars of Affairs in New Orleans.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15. A Times Washington despatch says the President's failure to recognize the Packard Government in Louisiana has not been caused by any doubt as to the legality of that government, which he thinks cannot be questioned Privately he has always held that the Returning Board was a legal and constitutional body and its decision of the election case in favor of Packard was final and conclusive Becoming aware, however, that leading Democratic Senators and others have been encouraging Nicholls and his other bogus State officers to continue in rebellion against the duly-elected government, and that on Saturday a Western Democratic Senator sent Nicholls a despatch in which he counselled him to take possession of the State House and dislodge the lawful government, in giving this course the Senator stated the action on the part of the Nicholls clique could not fail to strengthen the cause of Tilden, the President regarding Nicholls' interference with the courts as revolutionary in the highest degree, decided after consultation with Senators and well-known constitutional lawyers to recognize and sustain the Packard government and the Republican Legislature

Sunday he caused instructions in accordance with this decision to be telegraphed to Gen Auger, in New Orleans, who will, in pursuance of these orders, give Gov Packard all the support in his power It is not thought, however, that it will be necessary to actively employ troops The moral support of the President's recognition will, it is believed be sufficient to sustain Packard and put an end to the pretensions of Nicholls

The N Y. Herald's Special.

The Herald's New Orleans special says Sunday was very quiet, disturbed only by rumors of a threatened attack upon the Court House building, the garrison of which was reinforced to-night Pinchback's defection is having its influence Ten more members of the House are reported as going over to the Democrats which will give them a quorum of the Returning Board members in both branches It is rumored that Dubuclet, State Treasurer, will acknowledge the Nicholls Government

President Grant's Instructions to Gen Augur

NEW ORLEANS Jan 15 The following was received at a late hour last night and copies furnished to Packard and Nicholls

WASHINGTON, D C, Jan 14

To Gen C C Augur New Orleans, La

It has been the policy of the administration to take no part in the settlement of the question of the rightful government in the State of Louisiana, at least not until the Congressional Committees now there have made their report, but it is not proper to sit quietly by and see the State government gradually taken possession of by one of the claimants for gubernatorial honors by illegal means The Supreme Court set up by Mr Nicholls can receive no more recognition than any other equal number of lawyers convened at the call of any other citizen of the State. A Returning Board existing in accordance with law and having judicial as well as ministerial powers over the count of the votes, in declaring the result of the late election have given certificates of election to the Legislature of the State a legal quorum of which House holding such certificates, met and declared Mr Packard Governor Should there be a necessity for the recognition of either, it must be Mr Packard You may furnish a copy of this to Mr Packard and to Mr Nicholls

U S GRANT, Prest

Gov Packard's Proclamation

Gov Stephen B Packard issued a proclamation to-day calling upon the Nicholls assembly to disperse and cease their lawless and treasonable conspiracy against the legally chosen authorities It also commands those persons claiming to act as Judges of the Supreme Court, and all persons supporting, aiding and abetting them, and all persons unlawfully assuming to act as Executive and official officers and all persons having possession of police stations and assuming to act as policemen on the streets, and all armed bodies of men not acting under the authority of the lawful government to immediately desist from the aforesaid unlawful acts and to disperse and retire to their homes under pains and penalties of the law

Nicholls and his Legislature will Disregard the Governor's Proclamation.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan 15 The Republicans are much elated over the news from Washington and the new phase of affairs The white Democrats assert the order of the President to Gen Auger will not compel him to interfere unless to prevent blood shed Nicholls and the Democratic Legislature will not heed Governor Packard's proclamation of this morning, and the former will resist any attempt of Packard to recapture the courts or station houses Gen Augur does not regard the order of the President received last night as materially changing his former instructions

Nicholls and the Mob Prepared to Begin Hostilities

Noon The Picayune extra says every preparation has been made by the Government to quell any disturbance which may be raised by the drunken rabble of the St Louis Hotel, and orders are peremptory that any such tumult or emeute on the part of the followers of the pretender Packard, shall be quelled by the severest measures and at any cost Gen Auger in an interview, says he considers the President's order as recognizing neither of the claimants

The Pinchback Judas.

1 40 P M The Republican Legislature is in joint session with 78 members Several Senators have denounced Pinchback's assertion in regard to the use of money by Gov Kellogg to secure his election as U S Senator, and one of them, Senator Blount, said that while our Saviour had his Judas and the American people their Arnold, his race had their Pinchback He had nominated Pinchback for United States Senator and withdrew his nomination

An "Order by One of Nicholls Mob Supporters.

The following order has been received by Sheriff Handy

STATE OF LOUISIANA,
6th District Court, Parish of Orleans,

To Thomas Handy, Civil Sheriff of the Parish of Orleans

Considering that a certain proclamation signed by S. B. Packard, a wicked and shameless imposter, has come to the view of this Court, considering that the pretensions of said individual to be Governor of Louisiana have no foundation except so far as he falsely claims to be, supported by the irresistible power of the National forces It is ordered that the Civil Sheriff of this Parish of Orleans. do provide a sufficient force to guard this Court from any violence or intrusion."

By order of the Court.

(Signed) J. V. GUILLOTS, Clerk.

New Orleans, Jan. 15.

Condemnation of Pinchback.

Lieut. Gov. Antoine, State Superintendent Brown, A. Durant, President of the Republican Campaign Committee and twelve colored members of the Senate joined in the telegram in behalf of the colored race to Senators Morton and Sherman condemning Pinchback's course.

The Evening Democrat Counselling Strife, and Murder—How a Democratic Organ advises its Party.

The Evening Democrat in a leading editorial, referring to the probabilities of Gov Packard's attempting to retake the courts and stations, says. "Mr. Packard, however, is playing a dangerous game The patience of the people is well nigh exhausted, and if they are forced into a conflict which is calculated and designed to again rob them of the government of their choice and the blessings of an honest and efficient administration, their wrath will be difficult to restrain, and we for one hope that no hand will be able to restrain it. If Mr. Packard forces this conflict we appeal to our friends to spare, as far as final and complete victory will permit, the lives of the metropolitan and negro dupes. We advise them to let the full weight of their vengeance fall upon the leaders of this iniquitous, murderous and most damnable scheme and to follow Packard into his hotel and if need be, into the Custom House itself and hang him from its highest window

Senatorial Ballot

Both Legislatures balloted for a Senator to-day without choice. Pinchback received 1 vote in the Republican Legislature

Nicholls' "Bull Dozers" Still Hold the Court House.

Sheriff Bourges, representing the Supreme Court over which Chief Justice Ludding presides, made a demand for the Court House this morning, which was refused The Court House is now held by three companies of Nicholls militia and the first precinct station by a battery of the same force

It is supposed that Gen Augur has referred the matter to the authorities at Washington A number of bankers telegraphed President Grant to-day in relation to the Nicholls Legislature, showing that the Senate had a quorum of members about whose membership there was no contest

The Nicholls Mob About the Court House

Nicholls police at the Court House and stations have been reinforced to-night to prevent the recapture of those places, but there is no indication of an aggressive movement at the State House It is probable the Senate Committee will conclude its labors Friday

THE WEEKS ROBBERY SUIT Our readers are familiar with the facts of the robbery of Jason Weeks Esq of this city on the cars of the New Haven Railroad Co in 1871 In the fall of that year Mr Weeks started for Quincy Illinois taking with him some $15 000 in U S bonds and other securities realized from the disposal of his property here, as he intended settling in the West with his children On arriving in New York in the morning the cars were detached in the street as was then the custom and one by one hauled by horses into the station While his car was standing in the street a number of men enter [illegible] of whom pushed him over the stove while another pulled his hat over his eyes, and another robbed him of the package containing his property Mr Weeks brought suit against the Railroad Company to recover the amount of his loss and the jury gave him a verdict under the Judge's instructions that if the robbery was in consequence of want of reasonable diligence on the part of the company in protecting its passengers they were liable for the loss An appeal was taken by the Company and on Friday last at the General Term Judge Daniels delivered a decision setting aside the verdict and ordering a new trial, costs to abide the event —The opinion held that a railroad company is not bound to protect its passengers from robbery, that the company were not informed of the valuable property carried by the passenger and that as the bonds were not delivered into its care the company is not liable The many friends of Mr Weeks will regret this adverse decision in a case involving the careful earnings of a life time, and those who remember the manner in which the passenger cars of that company were left unprotected and unguarded in the middle of the street in New York at early daylight, will incline to the belief that there should be some responsibility for such outrages Judge Brady dissented from the opinion of the Court.

BETTER IN THE MORNING

BY [illegible] LEANDER S COAN

[illegible] can't help the baby, parson,
But still I want ye to go
Down an' look in upon her,
An' read an' pray, you know.
Only last week she was skippin' round
A pullin' my whiskers 'n' hair,
A climbin' up to the table
Into her little high chair.

The first night that she took it,
When her little cheeks grew red,
When she kissed good night to papa,
And went away to bed,—
Sez she: 'Tis head-ache, papa,
Be better in mornin'—bye;'
An' somethin' in how she said it
Just made me want to cry.

But the mornin' brought the fever,
And her little hands were hot,
An' the pretty red uv her little cheeks
Grew into a crimson spot.
But she laid there just as patient
As ever a woman could,
Takin' whatever we give her
Better 'n a grown woman would.

The days are terrible long an' slow,
An' she's growin' wuss in each,
An' now she's jest a slippin'
Clear away out uv our reach;
Every night when I kiss her,
Tryin' hard not to cry,
She says in a way that kills me,—
'Be better in mornin'—bye!'

'She can't get through the night, parson,
So I want ye to come an' pray,
An' talk with mother a little—
I don't know jest what to say;—
Not that the baby needs it,
Nor that we make any complaint
That God seems to think He's needin'
The smile uv the little saint."

I walked along with the Corporal
To the door of his humble home,
To which the silent messenger
Before me had also come;
And if he had been a titled prince,
I would not have been honored more
Than I was with his heartfelt welcome
To his lowly cottage door.

Night falls again in the cottage;
They move in silence and dread
Around the room where the baby
Lies panting upon her bed:
'Does baby know papa, darling?'
And she moves her little face
With answer that shows she knows him,
But scarce a visible trace

Of her wonderful infantile beauty
Remains as it was before
The unseen silent messenger
Had waited at their door.
'Papa—kiss—dolly—I—am—tired'—
The man bows low his face,
And two swollen hands are lifted
In baby's last embrace.

And into her father's grizzled beard
The little red fingers cling,
While her husky whispered tenderness
Tears from a rock would wring:
"Baby—is—so—sick—papa—
But—don't—want—you—to—cry;"
The little hands fall on the coverlet—
"Be—better—in—mornin'——bye!"

And night around baby is falling,
Settling down dark and dense;
Does God need their darling in heaven
That he must carry her hence?
I prayed, with tears in my voice,
As the Corporal solemnly knelt,
With grief such as never before
His great warm heart had felt.

Oh! frail are the hopes of men!
[illegible] know we [illegible] ...
[illegible] humble and haughty
[illegible] evermore the cry
'Spare [illegible] my precious, my darling,
How can I let you die?'
Oh! hear we the white lips whisper—
"Be—better—in—mornin'——bye."

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE For CATARRH,

IS UNIVERSALLY RECOMMENDED.

We have just received a communication from nearly every druggist in New England and the West, and the testimony is universally in favor of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. We believe there never was a remedy so popular wherever known, and certainly we feel that never was one more deserving of praise. Founded upon correct scientific principles, and calculated by the most accomplished physicians to meet the severest forms of Catarrh, the cures made by it have not not only been numerous, but so remarkable as to excite public attention and cause the sale to exceed tenfold that of any similar remedy ever before compounded.

While many are anxious to make public their testimony in favor of the Radical Cure, others—and among this number may be found many of our most respected citizens—dislike to become publicly identified with so loathsome a disease.—Hence, in the following case we are unable to give the name, but are permitted to refer those who may call upon us personally to him, and to state the severity and condition of the case before and after using the Radical Cure, and also that the gentleman occupies a responsible office in one of our State institutions. We quote:—

"I would not for the world permit my name to be used, although I have no doubt it would be of benefit to many now suffering as I have suffered, but I give you a brief statement of my case:—

"For two years I have taken bromide of potassa and bromide of ammonia every day. I never passed a single night without getting up once or twice to free my throat from the matter that had dropped into it during sleep, and finally I coughed during all this time. Since taking the RADICAL CURE I have taken no potassa or ammonia, have slept soundly every night without uneasiness or distress, not a particle of matter has dropped into my throat during sleep, and every symptom of a cough has left me."

A wonderful result truly all will say, who know or can realize the extent and severity of this case. The gentleman has had eighteen bottles. This must satisfy the sceptical that there is great merit in the Radical Cure. Its mode of preparation is new and original. Ignoring the old practices and remedies, Dr. Sanford selected a new field, and has demonstrated his method to be the only proper and never failing treatment.

The following recommendations are from

who are competent witnesses to the work it is daily doing.

MARK THESE FACTS!

The Testimony of the Whole World

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

"I had no appetite; Holloway's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvellous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Holloway has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave one of your Pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Holloway's Ointment cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Ointment behind the ears, and the noise has left."

"Send me two boxes, I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar, your price is 25 cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your Pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Pills by return mail, for Chills and Fever."

I have over 200 such testimonials as these, but want of space compels me to conclude.

For Cutaneous Disorders.

And all eruptions of the skin, this Ointment is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS

Invariably cure the following diseases:

Disorder of the Kidneys.

In all diseases affecting these organs, whether they secrete too much or too little water, or whether they be afflicted with stone or gravel, or with aches and pains settled in the loins over the regions of the kidneys, these Pills should be taken according to the printed directions, and the Ointment should be well rubbed into the small of the back at bed time. This treatment will give almost immediate relief when all other means have failed.

For Stomachs out of Order.

No medicine will so effectually improve the tone of the stomach as these Pills; they remove all acidity occasioned either by intemperance or improper diet. They reach the liver and reduce it to a healthy action; they are wonderfully efficacious in cases of spasm—in fact they never fail in curing all disorders of the liver and stomach.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS are the best known in the world for the following diseases: Ague, Asthma, Bilious Complaints, Blotches on the Skin, Bowels, Consumption, Debility, Dropsy, Dysentery, Erysipelas, Female Irregularities, Fevers of all kinds, Fits, Gout, Headache, Indigestion, Inflammation, Jaundice, Liver Complaints, Lumbago, Piles, Rheumatism, Retention of Urine, Scrofula or King's Evil, Sore Throats, Stone and Gravel, Tic Doloureux, Tumors, Ulcers, Worms of all kinds, Weakness from any cause, etc.

IMPORTANT CAUTION.

None are genuine unless the signature of J Haydock, as agent for the United States, surrounds each box of Pills and Ointment. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

Sold at the manufactory of PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY & Co, New York, and by all respectable druggists and dealers in medicine throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 62 cents and $1 each.

There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N B—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.

To the Honorable Judge of Probate for the County of Penobscot:

The undersigned, Executor and Trustee of the will of Deborah B. Hersey, late of Bangor, in said County, deceased, respectfully represents that the goods and chattels, rights and credits of said deceased are not sufficient to pay her just debts, and charges of administration and trust and legacies, by the sum of about two hundred dollars.

Wherefore your petitioner prays your honor to grant him a license to sell, at public or private sale, and convey what is termed in the will of said Deborah, "the homestead on the easterly side of Elm Street in said Bangor," being all the real estate of the deceased in said Bangor, as the residue would be greatly depreciated in value by a partial sale of any entire portion thereof, to satisfy said debts, expenses of sale and charges of administration and trust and legacies.

THE LONDON LITERARY WORLD says:

LETTER CARRIERS

All letters are delivered free by carriers when addressed to street and number. People should inform their correspondents of above and have their letters addressed accordingly.

Persons leaving their address at the General Delivery can also have their letters sent, but it is much more convenient to have the street and number on, and they will be delivered earlier than if the same is put on at the office. Carriers make two deliveries daily, the first trip supplying the extremes of their routes.

Collections are made morning and evening and set on for important mails—P. O. down town boxes, and uptown boxes thirty minutes before closing mails at the office.

Holidays the Carriers' Window will be open for the delivery of letters from 8½ to 9½ A M, and from [illegible] to [illegible] P M. Sundays from 8½ to 9½ A M.

Any irregularities in the Carriers' department should be reported to the office.

ENVELOPES

No additional charge will be made for printing [the] request to return letters [on] the corner of the envelopes furnished by the Post Office Department (sample[s] of which may be seen at the Carriers window,) when ordered in lots of not less than 500.

A request for the return of a letter to the writer, if unclaimed within thirty days or less, written or printed, with the writer's name, post office and State, across the left hand end of the envelope on the face side, will be complied with.

The public are earnestly recommended to procure Stamped Envelopes with printed return request, as the expense is less, and letters thus endorsed, if not delivered to the person addressed, are returned to the writer free of charge.

First class envelopes of above quality [illegible] $12 50 [illegible]

Cannot be used to prepay postage. The use of such stamps is punishable by a fine of fifty dollars. [illegible] Envelopes [illegible] in directing [illegible] declined at this office.

FRANKLIN HOUSE,

Harlow Street, - Bangor, Maine.

GEORGE F. HILL, Prop'r.

This spacious and popular Hotel has been thoroughly renovated by the present proprietor. Several of the chambers have been refurnished, and all the appointments of the house are now first class. The Holly Water has been introduced and the establishment is heated by steam. These improvements make the house thoroughly comfortable, convenient and pleasant.

The location of the FRANKLIN HOUSE is one of the most agreeable, healthy and central in the city. It is within one minute's walk of the Post Office, Custom House and Norombega Hall, and convenient to all the business parts of the city.

Mr ROYAL QUIMBY, the old and popular Clerk of the house, will continue to discharge the duties of that position.

With these advantages the proprietor flatters himself that he will be enabled fully to satisfy the expectations of the old patrons of the house and make it a desirable resort for the travelling public. The table will be made second to that of no other hotel in Maine.

Coaching to and from the cars and steamboats free to guests.
